The InDesign Conference

The InDesign Conference 2026 is the essential how-to event for creative professionals who rely on Adobe InDesign. Being held online December 1–4, this four-day conference features 20+ expert-led sessions designed to help you work faster, export cleaner, and finally fix the pain points in your workflow.

Whether you're designing books, marketing materials, reports, or digital publications, this event will sharpen your skills and simplify your process.

You'll learn directly from the world's top InDesign experts on topics like advanced styles, automation with GREP and Data Merge, long-document workflows, accessible layout techniques, and more. Each day ends with a project-based session, complete with downloadable practice files so you can follow along and apply what you've learned right away.

Your registration includes access to all live sessions and Q&A recordings for the days you attend—plus one full year of on-demand access so you can revisit the content anytime. You'll also receive comprehensive speaker handouts, as well as the InDesign Productivity Kit: a curated bundle of professional templates, time-saving scripts, powerful automation tools, and two essential ebooks.

If InDesign is part of your job, this is the training that changes everything.

“CreativePro Events are truly a family community, featuring dynamic sessions across all creative platforms presented by world-class experts.”
